Others Details	He instructed the students that the best time to practice aerobics is either morning or evening. He performed aerobics with different music. And he also presented few live videos of Aerobics with his students performing along with him. The session was very interesting and energetic where the students learnt that aerobic exercise provides cardiovascular conditioning. The term aerobic actually means "with oxygen," which means that breathing controls the amount of oxygen that can make it to the muscles to help them burn fuel and move, Improves cardiovascular conditioning, decreases risk of heart disease. Aerobic activity improves our cardiovascular fitness, decreases our risk of heart disease, lowers blood pressure, increases good cholesterol, helps control blood sugar, assists in weight management, and improves lung function and heart rate.

Details of the Resource Person	Physical Education Director and Fitness Trainer R.B.A.N .M's First grade college Bangalore.
Others Details	He shared his experience regarding early morning core exercise stating how important it is for the overall fitness of an individual. He started the session with body exercise, breathing exercise, warm up exercise, stretching exercise, sit-ups, pushups and warm down exercise. He mentioned that involving in daily exercise activates whole body of an individual. Also core exercises train the muscle in the pelvis, lower back, hips and abdomen to work in harmony. This lead to better balance and stability, whether on the playing field or to perform our daily activities. Infact, most sports and other physical activities depend on stable core muscles. Core muscles are also important for athletes, such as runners, as weak core muscles can lead to more fatigue, less endurance and injuries.

OATH

I hereby solemnly pledge that on graduating from this institution, I shall in my daily life and conversation, conduct myself as befits an educated person and an alumnus of this prestigious institution. I shall strive to uphold the moral values instilled in me by this institution and contribute to the well being of my fellow men.

I shall faithfully and carefully fulfill the duties of the occupation to which I maybe admitted by virtue of my degree. I shall, on all occasions maintain its purity and reputation.

I shall never deviate from the path of righteousness and I shall never make my knowledge subservient to unworthy ends.

I seek God's grace in all my endeavour
